Your friend looks sad . . .

What could you ask to find out how your friend is feeling?

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

You find out someone was mean to your friend. What’s another question you could ask to find out more?

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

Your friend says they want to be alone. Write what you would do.

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________